Office note

Letter dated 14th May 1898 from Mr. H. Lubeck, B.A. LL.B. Advocate, Bangalore requesting payment to his client of a certain sum of money said to be due to the late Mr. McDonnell retired special Asstt. to Commr. Dewani's Office.

In connection with the several requests made by the late Mr. McDonnell in his printed memorial dated 7th February 1896, ~~in adjustment of all sums claimed by him,~~ Government ~~has~~ passed ~~their~~ final orders in Profe No. 9997-99 & 13.5.96 to the following effect:—

FE 704

(1) That 3 months pay in lieu of notice of his retirement has already been granted

that the Conveyance Allowance of Rs 60 should be treated as personal allowance with effect from the 6th February 1891 instead of from the date Mr Mc Donnell joined the Diwani's office. and

(3) with a third with reference to all other prayers that a bonus of Rs 2000/- was sanctioned

Mr Lubeck in his letter under reference states that the following sums are due on behalf of the late Mr Mc Donnell.

(1) Rs 2500/- referred to in para 2 of Govt proc of 13th
May/96 as a second bonus sanctioned ~~in connection with~~ for his service in connection with the "Arrack Branch"
This sum was sanctioned for Mr Mc Donnell as bonus so ~~long~~ far back as 28th October/92 in proc no 6017-8/R7192-92 and the Govt in proc of 13th May/96 have only the fact of referred to the bonus having been sanctioned. ~~This cannot~~ ~~therefore be considered~~ Mr Lubeck

infers that ~~each~~ that sum still remains unadjusted.

(2) The next item is Rs 2000/- sanctioned in the same proso (of 13.5.96) as bonus in recognition of his services. There is nothing on file to show that this sum has been paid or remains still unadjusted. This may be ascertained from the Comptroller.

(3) Rs 3660 in account of personal allowance from Feb 1891 for 61 months at 60 Rs per mensem. This is apparently a mistake. The conveyance allowance which Mr. McDonnell had drawn, was ordered to be treated as personal allowance with effect from the 6th February instead of from the date he joined Dewan's office, only to give him after retirement, an advantage of getting a small increase to his pension. The amount is therefore claimed certainly under ~~the wrong~~ ~~a mistaken construction~~ a misconception of the Govt. order (para 3).

(4) Arrears of pension.

This amount seems to be still due as will be seen from para 3 of first proc no 10327/742

of 25.5.96 in which it is directed that the arrears of pension viz £ 144-8-3 should be paid to his heirs, which has not so yet been done pending production of an heirship certificate by the

In accordance with the above order, information was called for from the Comptroller who ~~in reply, dated reports~~ in his letter under reference reports that ~~all items~~ of the several items referred to only two (noted in the margin) remain undisbursed in the heirs of Mr. Mc Donnell for want of the necessary ~~heirship~~ Certificate.

Passed 4 June 9/5/99

With reference to the above order instructing the comptroller to arrange for early payment to the Revd A. M. Tabaret of the sum of Rs 2144-8-3 due to the Estate of the late Mr Mc Donnell, the Comptroller states that the Hugur Treasury has been instructed to ~~pay~~ make the payment of the amount after deducting Rs 49-14-0 being the balance of the advance of Rs 300/- made to Mr Mc Donnell in 1891 which remains unadjusted in the accounts up to date. The Comptroller solicits that his action in the matter ~~will~~ may be ~~approved~~ confirmed by Govt as ~~to~~ the adjustment now made will finally settle all claims on the Govt by Mr McDonnell's Estate.

The file relating to the advance of Rs 300/- made to Mr Mc Donnell in 1891 is also put up.

Draft ~~in~~ confirming the action taken by the comptroller in finally adjusting all

Mr McDonnell
Estate & informing Mr H Lubeck
if the same is submitted for approval or order.

In connection with the question of advance made to the late Mr Dne Donnell, the Comptroller in his letter no 5971/397 & 23/3/97
said that there was no reference ~~to~~ in his office to show that ~~payment~~ investment has been made of the advance referred to. But by the present reference under disposal it appears that that advance has been adjusted leaving a balance of £ 49-14 nly still remaining to be adjusted. The action now taken by the Comptroller will settle this question as well.

letter dated the 17th February 1896 from Mr. C. G. McDowell, Retired Special Forest Commissioner, Deccan office submitting a memorial praying —

1) that a gratuity equal to three months' emoluments may be sanctioned in lieu of notice

2) that sanction may be accorded to his bill for Rs 2800 being amount claimed in lieu of difference of double mileage, double batta &c, during the time he was engaged in subdividing the new Coorg Settlement,

3) that the terms of five months' pay sanctioned in Government Proceedings No 6017-8 dated 28 October 1892 may be increased to one of six months pay

4) that the foregoing claims be treated as special and exceptional and that in full clearance of all demands thereunder a bonus of 12 months pay may be sanctioned and

5) that effect be given from the 6th February 1891 to the order of 3rd August 1891 No. 2164-478, converting his Conveyance —

"Travelling" of £2 60 cts a "personal allowance" from the 11th November 1893.

Minute thereon

of 9997-99
H 704 dated

Cocoa Bypass, 13 May 1896

Of the several requests made by Mr McDonnell in his memorial, the first has already been complied with by the grant of three months' pay in lieu of notice.

2 In June 1892, Mr McDonnell claimed £2500 in lieu of double mileage, &c., granted to the Special Revenue Officer who had been associated with him in the introduction of the new toddy system. Government in passing orders thereon, sanctioned to Mr McDonnell a bonus of £2500/- as it was contended that that was earned incurred in connection with his services in the arrack Branch and that the claim for £2500 for work in the toddy branch still remains unadjusted. With reference to this claim and to the third and fourth prayers in the memorial, the Government observe that Mr McDonnell has no right to claim any bonus for any particular work. In recognition however, of the long and excellent services rendered by him in the Excise Department and of the success attending his zealous endeavours to develop the excise revenue of the state, and in consideration of the peculiar circumstances under which he has been retired before the attainment of his 55th year, the Government are pleased to sanction the payment to him of a sum of Rs Two thousand.

3. The Government are further pleased to grant the fifth prayer in the memorial. The conveyance allowance of Rs 60 will be treated as "personal allowance" with effect from the 6th February 1891 instead of from the date on which Mr Macdonell joined the Revenue office as directed in the order of 3d August 1894, No $\frac{2184}{3478}$.
